A LEVEL GEOGRAPHY:

TASKS

The Find Your Feet tasks for Geography can be found here.

RESEARCH

1. Geographical is the official magazine of the Royal Geographical Society and one of the leading magazines in its field with stunning photography, great writing and first-class design. Keep up to date with the world, its people and places through the fascinating articles. As a Geography student, you have exclusive, unlimited access to the online archive which dates back to 1935. Access it by following the link above, select library card and then enter with the code 856209.
2. Time for Geography is a great resource which contains lots of short videos to improve your geographical understanding – start with the coasts videos as this will be our first topic in September.
